

HAT DOES IT MEAN TO ME?

(Circle all correct answers.)

What did Paul have in common with Isaiah, who lived hundreds of years earlier? See Isaiah 6:8.

- A) They both persecuted believers.
- B) They both sailed to foreign countries.
- C) They both went where the Holy Spirit told them.
- D) They both healed people.

Jesus taught His disciples about the Holy Spirit in John 16:5-16. What had to happen before the Holy Spirit could come?

- A) He had to be invited.
- B) He had to get acquainted.
- C) Jesus had to come to earth.
- D) Jesus had to return to heaven.

What would the Holy Spirit's main role be?

- A) Convicting people of sin.
- B) Forgiving people for sin.
- C) Hating sin.
- D) Encouraging sin.

According to John 16:13, how would the Holy Spirit help the disciples?

- A) Teaching them.
- B) Guiding them.
- C) Frightening them.
- D) Ignoring them.

Later, Paul wrote to the church in Rome about the Holy Spirit. Read Romans 8:14. According to this verse, what do all believers share?

- A) Reading their Bibles.
- B) Preaching about Jesus.
- C) Serving others.
- D) Being led by the Holy Spirit.

When has the Holy Spirit guided you to a new opportunity by closing the door to something else you were attempting?

Where might He be guiding you by using your circumstances today?

Paul Visits Macedonia

BETWEEN_{THE}LINES

Take some time to read the story of Paul in Macedonia in Acts 16:6-10.

HAT DOES IT SAY?

Paul and his companions were traveling around telling everyone the good news of Jesus. What kept Paul from going into Asia?

What other place was he prevented from entering, and who prevented him?

Find these places on a map. (Phrygia, Galatia, Asia, Mysia, Bithynia, and Macedonia) What interesting thing happened to Paul that night?

What decision did he and his companions make as a result?

HAT DOES IT MEAN?

Why do you think the Holy Spirit kept Paul from entering Asia?

Why do you think Paul understood the message of the vision?

If you had been traveling with Paul, how would you have made the decisions about where to go?

Paul Visits Macedonia BETWEEN THE LINES

Take some time to read the story of Paul in Macedonia in Acts 16:6-10.

WHAT DOES IT SAY?

Paul and his companions were traveling around telling everyone the good news of Jesus. What kept Paul from going into Asia?

What other place was he prevented from entering, and who prevented him?

Find these places on a map. (Phrygia, Galatia, Asia, Mysia, Bithynia, and Macedonia) What interesting thing happened to Paul that night?

What decision did he and his companions make as a result?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Why do you think the Holy Spirit kept Paul from entering Asia?

Why do you think Paul understood the message of the vision?

If you had been traveling with Paul, how would you have made the decisions about where to go?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO ME?

(Circle all correct answers.)

What did Paul have in common with Isaiah, who lived hundreds of years earlier? See Isaiah 6:8.

- A) They both persecuted believers.
- B) They both sailed to foreign countries.
- C) They both went where the Holy Spirit told them.
- D) They both healed people.

Jesus taught His disciples about the Holy Spirit in John 16:5-16. What had to happen before the Holy Spirit could come?

- A) He had to be invited.

- B) He had to get acquainted.

- C) Jesus had to come to earth.

- D) Jesus had to return to heaven.

What would the Holy Spirit's main role be?

- A) Convicting people of sin.

- B) Forgiving people for sin.

- C) Hating sin.

- D) Encouraging sin.

According to John 16:13, how would the Holy Spirit help the disciples?

- A) Teaching them.

- B) Guiding them.

- C) Frightening them.

- D) Ignoring them.

Later, Paul wrote to the church in Rome about the Holy Spirit. Read Romans 8:14. According to this verse, what do all believers share?

- A) Reading their Bibles.

- B) Preaching about Jesus.

- C) Serving others.

- D) Being led by the Holy Spirit.

When has the Holy Spirit guided you to a new opportunity by closing the door to something else you were attempting?

Where might He be guiding you by using your circumstances today?