> Paul had seen plenty of Roman soldiers and must have noticed the armor they wore as protection from the weapons of their enemies.

> Believers have an enemy. It is Satan. He wants us to feel discouraged and alone and to give up hope in hard times. But God wants us to stand our ground.

? What did Paul say would help the hearts of believers be strong in the Lord? (To put on the armor of God every day.)

> Do activity using mailbag supplies. Discuss the different pieces of the armor of God as part of the activity. (Belt of Truth, Breastplate of Righteousness, Shoes of the Gospel, Shield of Faith, Helmet of Salvation, Sword of the Spirit.)

> God has always helped us stand our ground against the enemy, so put on the armor of God!

CHRIST CONNECTION> 2 Chronicles 20:17
