

HAT DOES IT MEAN TO ME?

(Circle all correct answers.)

What does it mean to act justly?

- A) To make lots of rules.
- B) To just other's actions.
- C) To be fair.
- D) To be harsh.

What does it mean to show mercy?

- A) To forgive.
- B) To believe the best.
- C) To have compassion.
- D) To feel sorry.

What does it mean to live humbly?

- A) To realize all God has done for us.
- B) To be thankful.
- C) To be down.
- D) To realize our own weaknesses.

When have you been shown justice?

When have you been shown mercy?

What does it tell you about God that He loves justice and mercy?

Who do you know who best exemplifies each of these?

Acting justly:

Showing mercy:

Living humbly:

The only way for us to show justice, mercy and humility is to belong to Jesus. He is just. He is merciful. He is humble. Ask Him to help you to reflect His nature to those around you.

For what situation could you act justly or show mercy this week?

Micah & God's Courtroom BETWEEN_{THE}LINES

Take some time to read the message of Micah in Micah 6:1-2, 6, 8; 7:8b-9, 13, 18-19.

HAT DOES IT SAY?

Micah 6:1-2 tells us about God's courtroom. Who were to be the witnesses in the courtroom?

- A) Mountains
- B) Angels
- C) Stars

Who was God building a case against, or accusing?

- A) The mountains
- B) The Jews
- C) The angels

What things does Micah tell us about God in Micah 7:18?

Because God is merciful, He already had a plan to save His people. What city, tribe and nation does Micah say He will come from? (See Micah 5:2.)

HAT DOES IT MEAN?

Why did Micah say that God would punish the people of Judah?

- A) Because they would disobey.
- B) Because God has to punish sin.

Why did Micah say that God would show mercy on Judah?

- A) Because they would suffer.
- B) Because God is merciful.

Why did Micah say that God wants us to walk humbly?

- A) So we won't stumble.
- B) The Messiah would be a servant.

HAT DOES IT MEAN TO ME?

(Circle all correct answers.)

What does it mean to act justly?

- A) To make lots of rules.
- B) To just other's actions.
- C) To be fair.
- D) To be harsh.

What does it mean to show mercy?

- A) To forgive.
- B) To believe the best.
- C) To have compassion.
- D) To feel sorry.

What does it mean to live humbly?

- A) To realize all God has done for us.
- B) To be thankful.
- C) To be down.
- D) To realize our own weaknesses.

When have you been shown justice?

When have you been shown mercy?

What does it tell you about God that He loves justice and mercy?

Who do you know who best exemplifies each of these?

Acting justly:

Showing mercy:

Living humbly:

The only way for us to show justice, mercy and humility is to belong to Jesus. He is just. He is merciful. He is humble. Ask Him to help you to reflect His nature to those around you.

For what situation could you act justly or show mercy this week?

Micah & God's Courtroom BETWEEN^{THE}LINES

Take some time to read the message of Micah in Micah 6:1-2, 6, 8; 7:8b-9, 13, 18-19.

HAT DOES IT SAY?

Micah 6:1-2 tells us about God's courtroom. Who were to be the witnesses in the courtroom?

- A) Mountains
- B) Angels
- C) Stars

Who was God building a case against, or accusing?

- A) The mountains
- B) The Jews
- C) The angels

What things does Micah tell us about God in Micah 7:18?

Because God is merciful, He already had a plan to save His people. What city, tribe and nation does Micah say He will come from? (See Micah 5:2.)

HAT DOES IT MEAN?

Why did Micah say that God would punish the people of Judah?

- A) Because they would disobey.
- B) Because God has to punish sin.

Why did Micah say that God would show mercy on Judah?

- A) Because they would suffer.
- B) Because God is merciful.

Why did Micah say that God wants us to walk humbly?

- A) So we won't stumble.
- B) The Messiah would be a servant.