On-Ramp Preparing for Your Journey

DEAR FELLOW TRAVELER,
Progress in spiritual depth and maturity is inevitable as we begin to value the “along the way” aspects of the Christian life. This “Travel Log” was designed to help you do just that.

A companion to the Inner State 80 daily devotional, you can use this tool to record along the way what God is teaching you, where He is taking you, and how He is using you as you travel the eighty “Miles” provided in the book. A few short sentences will do fine. A sample is provided on the following page to give you an idea of how this works.

Additionally, at the end of each “Exit,” there’s space provided for you to look back and identify patterns of God’s involvement in your life.

There are several benefits to journaling: You’re capturing the evidence that God is real in your life. You’re giving yourself a tool to fight against the doubt that the enemy’s constantly going to try to lodge in your heart. You’re also giving yourself a reference you can use to connect with other people in their trials and struggles, so that you can point them back to God. That way, you’re not just taking the journey but also showing others the way.

Ready to get rolling? Start your engine, and get ready for the ride of your life!

Yours for the journey,

Mile 1: The Quest for the True God

A.W. Tozer, in The Knowledge of the Holy, wrote, “What comes into our minds when we think about God is the most important thing about us.” Who is God to you? Consider today how your view of God—His traits and your expectations—compare to the true and living God found in Scriptures.

What God Taught Me Today:

It seems as though I have a lot to learn about
Who God is... and what that means for my life!

Where God Took Me Today:

Through my usual routine - work, gym, out to dinner with friends..

How God Used Me Today:

I got to pray with a friend about what she's struggling with and I got to encourage my co-workers regarding the charity project we're all working on.

A body isn't just a single part blown up into something huge. It's all the different-but-similar parts arranged and functioning together. If Foot said, "I'm not elegant like Hand, embellished with rings; I guess I don't belong to this body," would that make it so? If Ear said, "I'm not beautiful like Eye, limpid and expressive; I don't deserve a place on the head," would you want to remove it from the body? If the body was all eye, how could it hear? If all ear, how could it smell? As it is, we see that God has carefully placed each part of the body right where he wanted it. —1 Corinthians 12:15-18 (The Message)

Then the Lord God made a woman from the rib, and he brought her to the man. “At last!” the man exclaimed. “This one is bone from my bone, and flesh from my flesh! She will be called ‘woman,’ because she was taken from ‘man.’” This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one. —Genesis 2:22-24 (NLT)

Above all and before all, do this: Get Wisdom! Write this at the top of your list: Get Understanding! Throw your arms around her—believe me, you won’t regret it; never let her go—she’ll make your life glorious. —Proverbs 4:7-8 (The Message)

Do everything readily and cheerfully—no bickering, no second-guessing allowed! Go out into the world uncorrupted, a breath of fresh air in this squalid and polluted society. Provide people with a glimpse of good living and of the living God. Carry the light-giving Message into the night so I'll have good cause to be proud of you on the day that Christ returns. You'll be living proof that I didn't go to all this work for nothing.

GPS: God-Positioning Scriptures (to Reorient Your Life)

Christ arrives right on time to make this happen. He didn't, and doesn't, wait for us to get ready. He presented himself for this sacrificial death when we were far too weak and rebellious to do anything to get ourselves ready. And even if we hadn't been so weak, we wouldn't have known what to do anyway. We can understand someone dying for a person worth dying for, and we can understand how someone good and noble could inspire us to selfless sacrifice. But God put his love on the line for us by offering his Son in sacrificial death while we were of no use whatever to him. —Romans 5:8 (The Message)

GPS: God-Positioning Scriptures (to Reorient Your Life)

It is absolutely clear that God has called you to a free life. Just make sure that you don't use this freedom as an excuse to do whatever you want to do and destroy your freedom. Rather, use your freedom to serve one another in love; that's how freedom grows. For everything we know about God's Word is summed up in a single sentence: Love others as you love yourself. That's an act of true freedom. If you bite and ravage each other, watch out—in no time at all you will be annihilating each other, and where will your precious freedom be then? —Galatians 5:13-15 (The Message)

Mile 69: Guiding the Way

How do you see God acting as Shepherd, Overseer, and High Priest in your current place in life? Take time to commit the following verse to memory. You will be glad you did.

No temptation has seized you except what is common to man. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can stand up under it. —I Corinthians 10:13 (NIV)

GPS: God-Positioning Scriptures (to Reorient Your Life)

“Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we do not have a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been tempted in all things as we are, yet without sin. Therefore let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.”

Mile 70: A Spirit-ed Journey

God is more concerned with our reaching our potential than we are. He truly can bring something out of nothing. Confident in those truths, what step can you take today toward becoming what/who He's called you to be?

I've told you these things for a purpose: that my joy might be your joy, and your joy wholly mature. This is my command: Love one another the way I loved you. This is the very best way to love. Put your life on the line for your friends. You are my friends when you do the things I command you. I'm no longer calling you servants because servants don't understand what their master is thinking and planning. No, I've named you friends because I've let you in on everything I've heard from the Father. —John 15:11-15 (The Message)

Are we there yet?

How many times on a trip have you heard that phrase ... or thought it yourself?

All of us are on a journey through life—not just physically, but spiritually. It’s a potentially beautiful journey—with opportunity, excitement and purpose around every turn. Yet, too often we become sidetracked by the monotony of daily routines, busy weeks, or wounds that slow us down. Confused or growing complacent on our journey, we start to wonder whether we’re making any progress at all on the road to spiritual maturity ...

Tired of living within the confines of a “predictable” religion? Ready to tap the brake and take your life off “cruise-control?” Primed to start living more alive than you ever dreamed possible? Then start writing! Take eighty days to read Inner State 80, using this companion piece to journal what you’re learning and experiencing. You’ll discover a new sense of God’s presence—a greater awareness and appreciation for how He is working in you, around you, and through you.

Whether your life is on course, in the ditch, or stalled out ... get ready for the ride of your life!
