Wrap Up

Jesus is the God of Wonders. Wonders are miracles. Jesus made the moon and the stars and the water and the grape vines. He has the power to control the universe. He sees you as you face challenges and problems. He cares about your times of celebration, just as He cares about your times of difficulty. Just as Mary did, remember that the God of Wonders is with you in your situations. Go to Jesus in every situation. Praise Him for His power. Thank Him for His love.

Extra Credit: You do the math!

Part 1: Jesus turned six jugs of water into wine. Each jug held about 30 gallons. How many gallons of wine did he make altogether?

Part 2: If there are four bottles of wine in a gallon, how many bottles of wine did Jesus make?

Jesus' First Miracle: Changing Water Into Wine BETWEEN THE LINES

Take some time to read the story of Jesus' first miracle in John 2:1-11 aloud.

WHAT DOES IT SAY?

Where did this story take place and what was the special occasion?

What did Mary tell Jesus? What did Jesus do about this problem?

Jesus could have made just enough wine for the host to serve his guests. Is that what He did?

What did the people believe because of this miracle?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

This was Jesus' first miracle. Why do you think Mary asked Him to help?

Do you think she expected a miracle? Yes. No.

Do you think there were other people who heard about this miracle and followed Jesus?

Why might Jesus have chosen this as His first miracle?
