Wrap Up

In last week's story, Jesus performed a miracle at a wedding, a time of great celebration. This miracle is different. Jesus was not asked to solve a problem. Even though the fishermen had not had a successful night of fishing, they were not complaining. This miracle is perhaps best described as a sign for the disciples. God was getting ready to change their lives and make them fishers of men. If He could call together all the fish in this lake to jump into their nets, could He not call men?

Pray today about what He would like to do with your life.
