THE WAY DISTRIBUTING OUR GIFTS

What did the boy offer Jesus? (Five loaves of bread and two fish.) Who created fish in the sea and the grain needed to make loaves of bread? (God.) Our Bible Memory Verse says, "By Him all things were created." Jesus is God. He created the bread and fish the boy gave to Jesus. Who provides you with the gifts you give to others? (Jesus.) How do we give to Jesus today? (Giving to the church, other ministries, and directly to individuals in need.)

Jesus distributed the boy's loaves of bread and fish. What does distributed mean? (To distribute means to divide up something to share it with others.) Jesus distributes the offerings we give to the church. He includes us in His miracles by using whatever we give His church in time, talents, items, tithes and offerings. He leads the church in how to distribute that to others. Today's Treasure Treat is a guide that will help you understand how your offering is divided up and shared with others in a way that builds God's kingdom. If time allows, review the Children's Guide to Giving.

In the story, did each person in the crowd have enough to eat? (Yes.) How many baskets of leftovers were there? (12 baskets.) In this miracle, Jesus made food for five thousand from one boy's meal. Jesus takes whatever we give Him and He multiplies it to build His kingdom. He lets us be a part of His miracles! How do you think the boy felt to see his loaves of bread and fish feed so many?

Let's make a list of all the things that you and your family might offer to the church and other ministries. Write list on a poster or dry erase board. List may include: earned money, allowance, canned goods, time, talents, a spare Bible, etc.

CHRIST CONNECTION:

A tithe is one tenth of what you have earned. God makes a promise to us if we each bring our whole tithe to Him. Let's find out what the Bible says. Reveal and read Malachi 3:10.

How did the promise in Malachi come true when the boy gave his loaves and fish to Jesus? (Five thousand people were fed and there was plenty left over, just as God promised.) Just as it was in Bible times, we can give our offerings to God and watch to see Him do miracles with it!

THE GOLDEN BOWL: Pray for individuals. Pray the Lord's Prayer.
