Getting started

THE WELCOME

To spark anticipation, encourage arriving children to meet and greet one another with today's question.
Meet & Greet Question: If you were the leader of your country, what is the first thing you would do?

GAME: WHO IS THE REAL CENTURION?

Purpose: Children will take turns pretending to be centurions to introduce them to the story of Jesus healing the centurion's servant.

Supplies: One coin, three small balls or marbles

Can anyone tell me what a centurion's job was in Bible times? (Children respond.) Centurions were commanders in the Roman army. Each centurion was in charge of leading 100 soldiers. Centurions gave the orders and their soldiers had to obey right away.

In our game, you must guess who is the "Real Centurion." Be sure to only obey the Real Centurion's commands! After our game, we will discover why the Roman centurion asked Jesus for help.

Directions:

1. Display the four objects: One coin and three balls. Tell children that if they receive a coin, they become the Real Centurion. If they receive a ball, they are regular soldiers and must try to get the other children to think they are the Real Centurion.
2. Instruct all children to sit with their eyes closed and to hold out their hands.
3. Choose one child to be the Real Centurion and place the coin in that child's hand. Choose three other children to be the soldiers and place one ball in each of those children's hands. All four children should close their hands immediately to hide the objects.
4. Children open their eyes on your signal. The Real Centurion and the three soldiers stand up.
5. In random order, ask one of the four soldiers to state a command to the remaining children. (For example: touch your toes, say your name, jump up and down, hop on one foot, spin in a circle, stand on one foot, put your hand on your head, etc.)
6. Any children who think the order was spoken by the Real Centurion should obey the order.
7. Let each of the four children take a turn stating an order. The other children may each choose only one child to obey as the Real Centurion.
8. Reveal the Real Centurion.
9. Collect the coin and balls and play again.

Jesus as the God of Healing

THE WORSHIP

Teacher Tip: To help children identify time set aside for worship, designate a special corner or area for singing, collecting offering, and watching the worship illustration. Play music as children move to the designated area.

The Seven Stars of Lent

If this lesson is taught during the Lenten season (the 40 days before Easter), we recommend the Seven Stars of Lent activity located at ResourceWell.org under Children—Other Resources. Choose one star for each week of the Lent season.

Today, we worship Jesus as the God of Healing. Jesus is in charge of everything, including the miracle of healing our diseases, forgiving our sins, and giving us what we need.

Our new Bible Memory verses, from Psalm 103, were written by David. He praised the Lord by remembering the many good things He does for us. Another word for the good things the Lord does is benefits.

You may choose to sing songs that focus on God's forgiveness.

As we give our offering today, let's ask God to use this money in bringing good things to many people. Sing Unit 2 Bible Memory Verse Song: "Praise the Lord, O My Soul" as the offering is collected.

Read Psalm 103:2-5.

Perform Bonzai Brothers script or read storybook: God of Wonders Unit 2, Lesson 6.

Jesus healed the centurion's servant

THE WORD

Teacher Tip: As you move from worship to instruction, change rooms or locations within a room to help redirect the children's focus to the Bible story. During this transition time, have each child write his or her name on a card and place it in the Golden Bowl.

Before we read God's Word, let's go over our Class Covenant. A covenant is an agreement. Just as God made a covenant with His people, I ask each of you to make this covenant promise with me today. Listen as I read our Class Covenant: "I will keep my eyes on my teacher, my mouth in control, my ears on God's Word; knowing God is my goal."

Last time, we learned how Jesus fed five thousand people with just one meal from a young boy. What did the boy give Jesus? (Two small fish and five small loaves of bread.) Today, we will hear about a miracle that took place in Capernaum, a town near the Sea of Galilee. If a map of Ancient Israel is available, point to Capernaum on the northern shore of the Sea of Galilee.

In those days, the Roman government ruled over Israel. A centurion was a Roman officer who was given control over 100 soldiers. One day the centurion's servant became so ill, he was paralyzed—he could not move his arms, legs, or body.

If you brought your Bible, open it now and share with others. Hand out spare Bibles. Today's Scripture verse is behind the curtain (or secret door, secret window, etc.). Child reveals the Bible Story Scripture reference: Matthew 8:5-10, 13.

Before we read, let's stand and ask God to open our eyes, ears, hearts, and minds to His Word today. Who would like to pray that for us? Child prays aloud. Be seated.

Listen carefully as we read exactly what happened that day in Capernaum. Read Matthew 8:5-10, 13.

We can have faith like the centurion

THE WAY

What was wrong with the centurion's servant? (He was suffering terribly and could not move his arms, legs, or body.) What did the centurion ask Jesus? (To heal his servant.)

The centurion was a Roman officer in charge of 100 soldiers. He understood that people obey words and commands from the one in charge. He had faith that Jesus was in charge of everything, including healing.

When an officer like the centurion gives his soldiers an order, what happens? (The soldiers obey.) How did the centurion know Jesus could heal his servant without touching him? (He knew if Jesus gave the order for the servant to be healed, it would happen just as Jesus said.)

The centurion had faith that all he needed was a word from Jesus, and his servant would be healed. Jesus was amazed to see the faith of the centurion. What did Jesus say about the centurion's faith? ("I tell you the truth, I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith.") Everyone would have been surprised to hear Jesus say a Gentile like the centurion had more faith than any Jew in Israel. The Jews thought the Savior was coming to save only the Jewish people. Did Jesus come for only one nation or one type of people? (No. In John 3:16, Jesus says, "...whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life.")

Do you have faith, as the centurion did, that Jesus can heal anyone? (Children respond.) Do you know someone who is very sick? (Children respond.) How can you talk to Jesus about that person? (Pray.)

Connecting the Old Testament, the New Testament, and Us

CHRIST CONNECTION

Five hundred years before Jesus healed the servant, the Jewish people—who had been captive in Babylon—praised God for hearing their cries. Let's read those words of praise.

Everyone, place your Bible on your lap. Choose a child to reveal the Christ Connection Scripture reference: Psalm 107:19-22. Let's find this scripture. Read Psalm 107:19-22.

In the Bible, we read, "He sent forth His word." That means God commanded from heaven that they be healed. How is this healing similar to the way Jesus healed the centurion's servant? (Jesus commanded the servant be healed, and the servant was healed.)

THE WAY continued...

Revelation 5:8

GOLDEN BOWL

Teacher Tip: Write the names of classmates, local church leaders, and children in other nations or others who need prayer on small pieces of paper. Place the papers in a golden bowl.

Revelation 5:8 says our prayers are like sweet smelling incense in the golden bowls at God's throne. I will lift each one of your names to God's throne as you pray for each person silently. Then, we will pray the Lord's Prayer (Matthew 6:9-13) aloud together. Let's pray.

Lord God, we lift up to Your throne the name of each child here. We trust You to watch over us and our needs, the ones we say aloud and the ones hidden in our hearts. First, we lift up to You ____, ____, ____. Read names in Golden Bowl.

Now, we pray the prayer Your Son taught us: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

When only 5 minutes remain, begin this segment.

FINAL FIVE MINUTES

TREASURE TREAT: Today, your Treasure Treat is a Psalm 103:2-5 Bible Memory Verse bookmark. Review the Bible Memory Verse with your students. Talk about what each phrase means. Point out the eagle on the bookmark. If you have time, use the Bible Memory Verse Brainstorm Game in Got Time? We can have faith like the centurion because we know the Lord can do all things.

DAILY WAY CHALLENGE: Did anyone bring in a completed Daily Way from last time? Praise or reward those who return a Daily Way. Distribute Lesson 6 Daily Way 5-day Bible study. Complete this week's Daily Way at home and let God speak to you through His own words in the Bible. Join the Daily Way Challenge by returning your completed Daily Way.

Teacher Tip: Collect Daily Ways in a basket or other container and periodically reward children as a group for completing the challenge.

OFFERING OF ART: Until it is time to be dismissed, let's make an Offering of Art. For your offering, draw a picture of Jesus speaking the words for the servant to be healed. The Offering of Art can be finished at home or given as an offering for the teacher to display.

PRAYER REQUESTS: As children work on their Offering of Art, ask how you can pray for them this week. Write requests in a prayer notebook.

BIBLE MEMORY VERSE SONG: Play the Unit 2 Bible Memory Verse Song, "Praise the Lord, O My Soul," in the background as children wait to be dismissed.

If time remains, choose from the connected activities below.

GOT TIME?

SNACK: CENTURION'S SOLDIERS

Purpose: Children will eat a snack while discussing Jesus' control over all things.

Snack Suggestion: Very small wrapped candies

What was the Roman centurion's job? (He commanded 100 soldiers.) The centurion had control over the soldiers, and they knew to obey his commands. Let's count 100 of these candies to see how many soldiers the centurion commanded. If you have a large group, divide into smaller groups and let each group count out 100 candies. The centurion had control over 100 men, but Jesus has control over all things!

Directions:

1. Serve the snack and drink. Divide the 100 candies evenly among the children.
2. Child prays to thank God for the snack.
3. Ask the Snack Discussion Question: "Who is one person you should obey?"

GAME: PUZZLE RACE

Purpose: For children to discover more about the commands of Jesus.

Supplies: Paper

Prepare: Print each of the following verses (scripture verse and reference) on separate sheets of paper: Mark 12:29-30, Luke 8:25, Mark 1:27, John 18:10-11, John 15:12. Cut each paper into puzzle pieces to create five puzzles of equal difficulty.

What happens when someone in control gives a command? (The command is obeyed.) What happened when Jesus commanded the servant to be healed? (He was healed.) What did Jesus have to do in addition to giving the command for the servant to be healed? (Nothing.) Jesus has control over all things. What are some other commands He gave? Let's play a puzzling game to find out!

Directions:

1. Divide children into five teams.
2. Give a puzzle set to each team.
3. On your signal, teams race to put together their puzzles.
4. After the teams have completed their puzzles, read the verse on each team's puzzle out loud.
5. After each verse is read, ask: Who or what did Jesus command to obey Him in this verse? (Children respond.) How should that person or thing obey Him? (Children respond.)

GAME: CENTURION SAYS

Purpose: To show when the one in control speaks a command, it's obeyed right away.

Supplies: None

The centurion told Jesus that when he said the word for his soldiers to do something, they obeyed right away. In this game, let's pretend you are the soldiers. When I say, "Centurion Says," you obey right away. But if you don't hear, "Centurion Says," stay as still as you can.

Directions:

1. Children stand at arms length from each other.
2. When you say the words, "Centurion Says," followed by a command, the children obey the command right away. If you give a command without saying, "Centurion Says," before the command, children should remain still.
Sample commands include: Stomp your feet, clap your hands 3 times, touch your knees, blink your eyes, put your finger on your nose, stand on one foot, place your hands on your ears.
3. Children who follow a command that didn't begin with "Centurion Says," are out of the game.
4. Play until one child remains.

CRAFT: CENTURION'S FEATHERED HELMET

Purpose: Children will make a centurion's helmet pencil topper to remind them of the story of Jesus healing the centurion's servant.

Supplies: Red felt or sturdy paper, pencils, scissors, tape or glue

Prepare: From felt or sturdy paper, cut a 6-inch diameter circle. Make a ¼-inch slit in the center.

In Bible times, Roman centurions had special uniforms. Typically their uniforms included a helmet with many red feathers. Let's make a feathered helmet for your pencil to help remind you of today's Bible story.

Directions:

1. Place the eraser end of the pencil through the ¼-inch slit in the center of the red circle.
2. Secure the red circle to the pencil with glue or tape, carefully pulling the edges of the circle upward so the eraser end of the pencil is completely concealed.
3. Use scissors to make small slits from the top edge of the circle down toward the eraser.
4. Continue making slits all the way around the circle. The end result should be a tall, red fringe of feathers standing up around the eraser end of the pencil.

BIBLE MEMORY VERSE ACTIVITIES

“Praise the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits—who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases, who redeems your life from the pit and crowns you with love and compassion, who satisfies your desires with good things so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.” Psalm 103:2-5

GAME: BIBLE MEMORY VERSE BRAINSTORM

Purpose: Children will discuss the meaning of the Unit 2 Bible Memory Verse.

Supplies: Unit 2 Bible Memory Verse poster or Bible

Our new Bible Memory Verse comes from Psalm 103:2-5. Let’s read each line together from the poster. After each line, raise your hand if you can tell us what it means.

- Praise the Lord, O my soul (Let the deepest part of you tell God how great He is!)
- And forget not all His benefits (Don’t forget all the wonderful things God has done for you.)
- Who forgives all your sins (Jesus forgives all our wrong doings.)
- And heals all your diseases (Jesus can heal anything and anyone.)
- Who redeems your life from the pit (He paid for your life by dying on the cross.)
- And crowns you with love and compassion (His love and caring is like a treasured crown.)
- Who satisfies your desires with good things (He makes you happy with good things.)
- So that your youth is renewed like the eagle's. (Your strength is refreshed.)

Teacher Tip: For an extra challenge, form eight teams. Assign a different phrase to each team. Have teams discuss the meaning of the phrase and create a poster to help them describe the meaning to the rest of the children. Teams take turns explaining their posters.

GAME: HOT POTATO SCRAMBLE

Purpose: In this variation of the Hot Potato game, children quickly pass their paper potatoes around the circle and then put the Unit 2 Bible Memory Verse in order once the music stops.

Supplies: Sturdy brown paper, Unit 2 Bible Memory Verse Song “Praise the Lord, O My Soul,” CD player, Bible Memory Verse poster, timer

Prepare: Divide the Unit 2 Bible Memory Verse into five or more phrases. From sturdy brown paper, cut a paper potato for each phrase. Write a different phrase on each potato. Add symbols or pictures for non-readers. Display Bible Memory Verse poster.

Directions:

1. Children stand in a circle.
2. Repeat the Bible Memory Verse several times together.
3. Scramble the order of the paper potatoes (“hot potatoes”). Distribute the hot potatoes.
4. Play the Unit 2 Bible Memory Verse Song “Praise the Lord, O My Soul.”
5. As if the potatoes are too hot to hold, each child quickly passes the hot potatoes to the child on his or her left and receives another hot potato from the child on his or her right.
6. Continue passing the hot potatoes around the circle until the song is stopped.
7. Periodically stop the song. When the music stops, the children with a hot potato race to the center of the circle and place them in the correct order of the Bible Memory Verse.
8. Play again, as time allows.
9. Optional: Time the children and challenge them to get a faster time each round.

BIBLE TIMELINE REVIEW

God of Wonders Part One studies the miracles of Jesus, which took place during His public ministry (Circa 30-33 A.D.). This list is not chronological, as the Bible does not give a definitive order of the miracles. Review recent Bible stories to see the continuing story of who God is and what He has done.

Healing Jairus' Daughter (Circa 30-33 A.D.) What did Jairus do when his daughter became ill? (He went to Jesus and asked for healing.) Jesus encouraged him to believe in God's healing. What are the three ways God heals us? (Right away, along the way, and someday in heaven.)

Feeding the Five Thousand (Circa 30-33 A.D.) What did the boy offer Jesus? (Five loaves of bread and two fish.) Jesus distributed the boy's loaves of bread and fish. Did each person in the crowd have enough to eat? (Yes.) How many baskets of leftovers were there? (12.)

Healing the Centurion's Servant (Circa 30-33 A.D.) What did the centurion ask Jesus to do? (Heal his servant.) How did the centurion know Jesus could heal his servant without touching him? (He knew if Jesus gave the order for the servant to be healed, that it would happen just as Jesus said it would.)

How to create a Bible Timeline for the Miracles of Jesus:

1. Print each footprint on sturdy paper.
2. Choose a wall or other visible location to display the timeline.
3. Before each lesson, add the footprint for that lesson to the Bible Timeline using the list below.
Children can follow in Jesus' footsteps as they review past lessons.
4. To review, ask the corresponding questions as you point to the associated footprint.
