

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO ME?

What do you think was the most difficult thing that God asked Noah to do?

- 1) Care for all those animals.
- 2) Stay in that little ark for such a long time.
- 3) Follow all those directions.
- 4) Trust God.

What other times did God intervene in human history?

- 1) When He confused the language in Genesis 11.
- 2) When He sent His Son as our Messiah.
- 3) More times than we can count.
- 4) When He sent Adam and Eve out of the Garden.
- 5) Other _____

The spiritual condition of the world today is not that much different than when Noah lived. Would this writer describe you the way he described Noah?

Yes [] No []

God gave Noah an amazing task. How do you respond when God asks you to take a difficult stand?

- 1) Ask a lot of questions.
- 2) Talk to my friends.
- 3) Obey.
- 4) I have no idea. He has never asked me.

What difficult thing is God asking you to do now?

What are the things that are most likely to keep you from obeying God?

- 1) What my friends will think.
- 2) What my family will think.
- 3) My own fear.
- 4) Nothing.

Take some time today to listen to God's voice. Ask Him where He is asking you to step out and obey. Ask Him to keep you "blameless."

THE HUMAN FACTOR

Read Acts 4:8-12. God went to great extremes to save Noah and his family. To what extremes did He go to save you?
