TEACHER'S ENCOURAGEMENT

This week, read Psalm 145. Please join us in praying, "Thank You, Lord, for sending Jesus. Let us all praise You as the shepherds did. Amen."

WHAT ABOUT SANTA? Many cultures incorporate the story of Saint Nicholas (Santa Claus) into their family traditions at Christmas. Many young children are very excited about this tradition. To honor all parents, our role as Bible teachers is not to address (validate or invalidate) their family traditions, but to redirect their focus to celebrate the gift of God's Son.

Getting started

THE WELCOME

To spark anticipation, encourage arriving children to meet and greet one another with today's question.

Meet & Greet Question: What is your favorite way to celebrate Christmas?

GAME: SHEPHERD RACE

Purpose: To introduce the story of the shepherds' response to the angel's good news.

Supplies: Three paper signs labeled "Manger," three paper signs labeled "Field," six chairs or boxes

Today, we will learn about the shepherds who hurried to the Bethlehem manger and then returned to their field. In this game, each pair of shepherds stands back-to-back and moves together, racing to the manger and returning to their field. The winner is the first team to have its last pair of shepherds return to the field.

Directions:

1. Line up 3 chairs approximately 3 feet apart. Attach one "Field" sign to each chair.
2. On the opposite side of room, line up 3 more chairs approximately 3 feet apart and directly across from the three "Field" chairs. Attach one "Manger" sign to each chair.
3. Divide children into 3 teams to stand behind each "Field" chair.
4. Each team divides into pairs.
5. The first pair from each team stands back-to-back, linking elbows.
6. One player faces the "Field" while the other player faces the "Manger."
7. On your signal, pairs race to touch the "Manger" and return to the "Field."
8. Pairs must remain back-to-back linking elbows throughout the race, or they must begin again.
9. Pairs return to the "Field" to tag the next pair of shepherds.
10. The first team to have its last pair of shepherds return to the field is the winner.

Option: To increase difficulty, on their return from the manger, each pair must hop joyfully. For added interest, create obstacles such as boxes or chairs that pairs must go around.

The King who came to us

THE WORSHIP

Teacher Tip: To help children identify time set aside for worship, designate a special corner or area for singing, collecting offering, and watching the worship illustration. Play music as children move to the designated area.

In preparation for the Advent Candle Lighting, light the first three candles on the Advent Wreath.

We worship the King who came to us. He came from heaven, so heaven's angels announced His birth. They worshiped God saying, "Glory to God in the Highest." Let's worship Him now by giving our offering and singing the words the angels said that night. Sing: "I Bring You Good News" or "Angels We Have Heard on High" as the offering is collected.

Advent Candle Lighting Ceremony: The Shepherds' Candle

Advent Wreath: 4 candles set in a wreath of greenery with gold trim

Advent means coming—the coming of Jesus. The Advent season helps get our hearts ready to celebrate Christmas, the time when King Jesus came to earth. Our Advent Wreath is round; it has no end just as God's love for us has no end. It is decorated with gold to remind us that Jesus is the King of kings.

Today, we light the fourth candle of Advent: The Shepherds' Candle. The shepherds were in the field when an angel appeared and told them Jesus was born. Then, the sky filled with an army of angels all praising God. When the shepherds found baby Jesus, they spread the word about the angel's good news. Everyone was amazed. Choose a child to light the fourth candle now.

As you look at the candlelight, listen to what the shepherds did on their way back to their field. Read Luke 2:20.

Perform King City Chronicles script or read storybook: Kings & Kingdoms Unit 10, Lesson 51.

Sing Unit 10 Bible Memory Verse Song: "King of Kings." Sing other songs that celebrate the birth of Christ.

The shepherds praise God

THE WORD

Teacher Tip: As you move from worship to instruction, change rooms or locations within a room to help redirect the children's focus to the Bible story. During this transition time, have each child write their name on a card and place it in the Golden Bowl.

Before we read God's Word, let's go over our Class Covenant. A covenant is an agreement. Just as God made a covenant with His people, I ask each of you to make this covenant promise with me today. Listen as I read our Class Covenant: "I will keep my eyes on my teacher, my mouth in control, my ears on God's Word—knowing God is my goal."

Last time, we learned that even though baby Jesus deserved a royal birthplace, He was born in a manger in the small town of Bethlehem. If a map is available, point out Bethlehem, Israel. If a Bible Timeline is available, point out Jesus on Earth (Circa 1-33 A.D.). For a Bible Timeline Review activity, see the GOT TIME? segment of this lesson. Let's read what happened right after baby Jesus was born.

Let's play Find It First! Bring out your Bible; keep it right in front of you. Hand out spare Bibles. Today's Scripture verse is behind the curtain (or secret door, secret window, etc.). Child reveals the Bible Story Scripture reference: Luke 2:8-20. Let's see who can Find It First. Ready? Set? Go! Children race to find it first. The winner helps others find it. Let's highlight our Key Verse: Luke 2:20.

Before we read, let's stand and ask God to open our eyes, ears, hearts, and minds to His Word today. Who would like to pray that for us? Child prays aloud. Be seated. Read Luke 2:8-20.

Worship everywhere, every day

THE WAY

What was the good news the angel announced? (Jesus was born as Savior, Christ, and Lord.) This story not only shares that good news, it shows us many different ways we can worship God. We worship when we praise Him, tell others about Him, and when we think about Him. Name all the ways God was worshiped in this story? (Angel announcing, host praising, shepherds going to see Jesus, shepherds spreading the word, Mary treasuring and pondering, shepherds praising.) List the places where this story took place. (In the fields, at the manger, on the shepherd's return home from the manger.) Worship is not something we only do at church. It is a way of life.

What were the shepherds doing when the angel appeared? (They were in the fields, keeping watch over their flocks of sheep.) The shepherds were working in their regular workplace when the angel appeared. Where do you do your work? (Children respond.) Do you believe God can be with you and communicate with you while you are working? (Children respond.)

Who suddenly appeared with the angel? (The heavenly host.) The heavenly host is heaven's army. They praised God and said, "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to men on whom His favor rests." What do you think that means? (Children respond.) They were stating the reason God sent the Savior: to bring glory to Himself and to bring peace with God to those who please Him. What did the shepherds do when the angel and the heavenly host went into heaven? (They hurried off to find baby Jesus.) The shepherds went to find the Savior for themselves. Where can you go to find the truth about Jesus for yourself? (The Bible.) How did everyone react when the shepherds told them what the angel said about Jesus? (They were amazed.) Have you told others about Jesus? (Children respond.) How have they reacted? (Children respond.)

What did Mary do after she heard the report from the shepherds? (She treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart.) What is an amazing truth about Jesus that you have treasured or thought about lately? (Children respond.)

Connecting the Old Testament, the New Testament, and Us

CHRIST CONNECTION

In today's story, the heavenly host spoke of His glorious majesty by saying, "Glory to God in the highest." The shepherds told of His mighty acts. Mary meditated on His wonderful works—that means she thought about them in her heart. One thousand years before that happened, David described those same ways of worship. As we read what David said, raise your hand each time you hear one of the ways that the angel, heavenly host, shepherds or Mary worshiped Jesus.

FIND IT FIRST > Everyone, place your Bible closed on your lap. Choose a child to reveal the Christ Connection Scripture reference: Psalm 145:4-5. Let's see who can Find It First! Ready? Set? Go! Find it and highlight it. Have children read Psalm 145:4-5, pausing after each phrase to allow time for children to recognize similarities in worship style between David, the angel, heavenly host, shepherds, and Mary. Discuss examples of how we can worship God as David did in this Psalm.

Revelation 5:8

GOLDEN BOWL

Teacher Tip: Write the names of classmates, local church leaders, and children in other nations or others who need prayer on small pieces of paper. Place the papers in a golden bowl.

Revelation 5:8 says our prayers are like sweet smelling incense in the golden bowls at God's throne. I'm going to lift each one of your names to God's throne as you pray for each person silently. Then, we will pray the Lord's Prayer (Matthew 6:9-13) aloud together. Let's pray.

Lord God, we lift up to Your throne the name of each child here. We trust You to watch over us and our needs, the ones we say aloud and the ones hidden in our hearts. First, we lift up to You ____, ____, ____. Read names in Golden Bowl.

Now, we pray the prayer Your Son taught us: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

When only 5 minutes remain, begin this segment.

FINAL FIVE MINUTES

TREASURE TREAT: Today, your Treasure Treat is a candy cane shaped like a shepherd's staff. Tell your family how the shepherds reacted to the good news.

W³: Take home today's W³ Journal Entry as your personal devotional study. Keep your journal entries together at home in a notebook or in your Bible. Distribute W³ Journal Entry #51. Complete this at home and let God speak to you through His own words in the Bible!

OFFERING OF ART: Until it is time to be dismissed, make an Offering of Art. For your offering, draw a picture of the shepherds running to see baby Jesus in the manger.

PRAYER REQUESTS: As children work on their Offering of Art, ask how you can pray for them this week. Write requests in a prayer notebook.

BIBLE MEMORY VERSE SONG: Play the Unit 10 Bible Memory Verse Song, "King of Kings," in the background as children wait to be dismissed.

If time remains, choose from the connected activities below.

GOT TIME?

SNACK: CHRISTMAS BIRTHDAY CUPCAKES

Purpose: Children celebrate Jesus' birthday with a traditional birthday dessert.

Snack Suggestion: Traditional birthday dessert such as cake or cupcakes, birthday candles, matches

What did the shepherds hear and see in the field that night? (An angel told them about the birth of Jesus. The sky filled with angels praising God.) What did the shepherds do after they saw baby Jesus in the manger? (They told everyone what the angel had said about Him. They went back to their fields praising God.) Let's celebrate Jesus' birthday with a birthday cake (or cupcakes).

Directions:

1. Serve the birthday dessert and drinks.
2. Child prays to thank God for the snack.
3. Teacher lights the birthday candles while everyone sings a birthday song to Jesus.
4. Ask the Snack Discussion Question: "What is your favorite way to celebrate your birthday?"

GAME: KEEP UP THE PRAISE

Purpose: Children see how long they can keep the balloon in the air by bopping it upward each time someone gives a specific praise.

Supplies: One inflated, non-helium balloon (or inflatable ball) per group of 4-8 children. Have extra balloons available in case a balloon pops.

The shepherds praised God for all they had seen and heard. Each of us has seen and heard things God has done in our lives. Let's take turns praising Him for those things as we bop the balloon in the air and call out our praises.

Directions:

1. Children stand in a circle.
2. First child completes the sentence, "I praise God for _____," and bops the balloon up.
3. Before the balloon touches the floor, the next child on the left must complete the sentence, "I praise God for _____," and bops the balloon up. The balloon cannot be bopped until the child has completed the sentence.
4. Teacher counts number of bops. Continue around the circle, bopping the balloon with each sentence of praise until the balloon touches the floor.
5. When the balloon touches the floor, children can play again and try to raise their praise number. If you have more than one group, see which group can keep the balloon in the air the longest.

GAME: DISAPPEARING ANGEL

Purpose: This party game encourages conversations about the angels in the shepherds' field.

Supplies: Dry erase board with marker and eraser, or poster board and pencil

After the army of heaven's angels praised God, they disappeared. Let's watch our angel disappear as we spell out the words from the Christmas story. (Use words such as manger, angel, glory, peace, earth, Bethlehem, Joseph, Savior, Mary, etc.)

Directions:

1. Draw an angel on the board or paper. Include details such as fingers, hair, face, feet, etc.
2. One child thinks of a secret word related to the Christmas story and whispers it to the teacher.
3. Under the angel, the teacher draws a line for each letter in the secret word.
4. The remaining children take turns guessing the letters in the secret word.
5. Each time a letter is guessed, the child who chose the word erases one part of the angel. The teacher writes the letter on the appropriate line.
6. Continue until the word is guessed or the angel "disappears."
7. If time allows, repeat the game with a new secret word.

CRAFT: SHEPHERD'S STAFF ORNAMENT

Purpose: Children create a shepherd's staff ornament to remember how the shepherds spread the word and praised God for the birth of the Savior.

Supplies: Multicolored craft beads, chenille pipe cleaners

Today, we will make an ornament to remind us of the shepherds who praised God and spread the word about the birth of Jesus. Choose each bead to stand for one thing you praise God for. Make one for yourself and one to give to a friend. Tell your friend how the shepherds spread the word and praised God about the birth of baby Jesus.

Directions:

1. Put the end of the pipe cleaner through one bead.
2. Turn the end of the pipe cleaner around the bead and twist.
3. String the next bead to cover the sharp end of the pipe cleaner.
4. String beads to cover the remainder of the pipe cleaner.
5. Bend the beaded pipe cleaner into the shape of the shepherd's staff.
6. Turn the end around the final bead and twist.
7. Tuck the end into the previous bead to cover the sharp end.
8. Hang as an ornament in your home.
9. Make a second shepherd's staff ornament for a friend. Tell them the good news of Jesus' birth.

BIBLE MEMORY VERSE ACTIVITIES

"The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and He will reign for ever and ever."

"KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS." Revelation 11:15b; 19:16b

GAME: CROWN TOSS

Purpose: To help children memorize the Unit 10 Bible Memory Verse.

Supplies: Unit 10 Bible Memory Verse poster, two scepters (stick or tube decorated with foil or paint), two crowns (toy or paper)

Who does the world belong to? (God the Father and Jesus Christ.) The world belongs to God because He made it. Jesus is our King who will reign forever. He is greater than any other king! Let's practice our Bible Memory Verse by tossing crowns onto a king's royal scepter.

Directions:

1. Form two teams of equal number. Have each team stand in a line.
2. Give a scepter to the first child in each line. Have those two children stand about 10 feet away, facing their team and holding the scepter in front of them.
3. Give a crown to the next child in each line.
4. On your signal, the children in each line toss the crowns, aiming for the team's scepter.
5. If a child gets the crown onto the scepter, the next child takes his or her turn. If a child misses the scepter, give him or her a second chance. If the child misses it a second time, the team must stop and say the Bible Memory Verse together before the next child's turn.
6. Once a child has taken a turn, he or she sits behind the team line.
7. The goal is to be the first team to have all their players seated.

GAME: ROYAL MUSICAL CHAIRS

Purpose: To help children memorize the Unit 10 Bible Memory Verse.

Supplies: One chair per child, Unit 10 Bible Memory Verse Song "King of Kings," CD player

Directions:

1. Children say Unit 10 Bible Memory Verse together. Practice several times.
2. Begin with one less chair than the number of children. Place the chairs in two lines, back to back with the seats facing out. Have the children stand around the chairs.
3. Play the Bible Memory Verse Song as the children walk around the chairs.
4. When you stop the song, each child tries to sit in a seat. One child should be left standing.
5. The child left standing can stay in the game if he or she recites the Bible Memory Verse from memory. (You may choose to help if he or she has just begun to learn the verse.) If the child can not recite the Bible Memory Verse, he or she is out of the game. Remove one chair and play again. If the child can recite the Bible Memory Verse, leave all the chairs and play again.
6. Continue playing several rounds to give more children a chance to say the Bible Memory Verse.
7. Give special responsibilities to children who are out of the game, such as helping to remove chairs or starting and stopping the music.

BIBLE TIMELINE REVIEW

Kings & Kingdoms Part Two studies the miracles and stories of the Bible from Judges through Esther. Review recent Bible stories to see the continuing story of who God is and what He has done.

Nehemiah (Circa 430 B.C.) What did Nehemiah ask King Artaxerxes? (He asked for permission to go rebuild Jerusalem's city wall.) How did Nehemiah use the families of Jerusalem to rebuild the city wall? (He gave each family a part of the wall to rebuild.) What was Nehemiah's plan for defending the families against the enemy as they built the wall? (He prayed and posted guards. He had the workers carry supplies in one hand and a weapon in the other.)

Esther (Circa 470 B.C.) Who did King Xerxes, the king of Persia, choose as his queen? (Esther.) What did Mordecai ask Queen Esther to do? (To ask the king to save God's people.) How did the king show Queen Esther that it was safe for her to come and talk to him? (He extended his scepter for her to touch.) Did the king agree to Queen Esther's request? (Yes.)

Jesus on Earth (Circa 1–33 A.D.) After the days of Queen Esther had passed, God sent no messages to His people for 400 years. Then, when the time was right, He sent His angel to announce the birth of King Jesus to a teenage girl. What was her name? (Mary.) Then, God sent an angel to Joseph telling him to name the baby Jesus. What did the angel say Jesus would do? (Jesus would "save His people from their sins.") Where was baby Jesus born? (In a manger in Bethlehem.) What did the shepherds do after they saw baby Jesus in the manger? (They told everyone what the angel had said about Him. They went back to their fields praising God.)

How to create a Bible Timeline from Judges through Esther:

1. Print each scroll on sturdy paper.
2. Choose a wall or other visible location to display the timeline.
3. Before each lesson, add the scroll for that lesson to the Bible Timeline using the list below. Add the Unit 10 card for Kings & Kingdoms Lessons 48-52.
4. To review, ask the corresponding questions as you point to the associated scroll.
