THE WAY CELEBRATING THE VICTORY

Display each symbol from Easter Symbols Egg as it is discussed.

CROSS: Display cross. Jesus gave His life on the cross in the battle to win something for us. What did Jesus win for us? (He won God's forgiveness for our sins by paying for our sins with His own life.)

TEMPLE CURTAIN: Display purple-red fabric. Before Jesus died, no one but the High Priest could go beyond the temple curtain to be close to God. What happened the moment Jesus died? (The curtain tore from top to bottom.) If the top of the curtain stood for God in heaven and the bottom stood for people on earth, what did tearing the curtain open from top to bottom stand for? (The separation between God and man was removed.)

BURIAL CLOTH: Display linen cloth scented with myrrh. Which part of the story does the scent and feel of this linen cloth symbolize? (After Jesus died, His friends wrapped His body in linen cloth with good smelling spices and placed it in the tomb.) Since God's final punishment for our sin is death, why is it important to know many witnesses saw Jesus had really died? (If Jesus had not actually died, our sins would not have been paid for.)

STONE: Display stone. How does the stone remind us of Jesus' victory over death? (The stone was rolled away to reveal Jesus had risen.) On the cross, Jesus made a way for us to be forgiven and come close to God. By raising Jesus from the dead, God showed what He would do for all who are close to Him. What does this mean will happen to all believers when they die? (They will be raised to life forever close to God.)

CHRIST CONNECTION:

EGG: Display Easter Symbols Egg. The egg stands for new life with God that lasts forever. Over one thousand years before Jesus rose, Job described what it will be like to see God face to face after our bodies die. Reveal Job 19:25-27. Find It First. Highlight. Read.

How do you think you will feel to see God with your own eyes one day? All who believe in Jesus will have life forever with Him. This is why believers celebrate Easter!

THE GOLDEN BOWL: Pray for individuals. Pray the Lord's Prayer.
