

Because David was a man after God's own heart, he was always focused on what God wanted instead of what he wanted. How can you be a person after God's own heart? Color in the spaces with dots to find the answer.

Because David was a man after God's own heart, he was always focused on what God wanted instead of what he wanted. How can you be a person after God's own heart? Color in the spaces with dots to find the answer.