

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO ME?

What can we learn from God's treatment of His people?

A) He reports.
 B) He remembers.
 C) He restores.
 D) He revives.

What can we learn from the life of Nehemiah?

A) God will use our lives.
 B) God will bring us home.
 C) God will answer our prayers.
 D) God will use our abilities.

What can we learn from the rebuilding of Jerusalem?

A) We all have a place in building God's kingdom.
 B) We all have a home in heaven.
 C) We all have a piece of the wall.
 D) We all have a skill that is important.

What can we learn from the opposition Nehemiah faced?

A) We all face opposition.
 B) Kingdom work is too big for us.
 C) God gives us weapons to withstand opposition.
 D) If we are watchful, we can persevere.

At this point in Israel's history, God has restored the temple and the holy city of Jerusalem, yet the king is missing from the scene. Who is that king who will come one day? (Jeremiah 23:5-6.)

---

---

---

How has God restored your life, when it was in ruins?

---

---

---

Nehemiah was a great leader. God gave him a special love for His people. God used Nehemiah's talent as a leader to rebuild the city. What abilities and passions has God given you that He will use for His kingdom?

---

---

---

Nehemiah Rebuilds the Wall BETWEEN THE LINES

Take some time to read the story of Nehemiah rebuilding the walls in Nehemiah 1:3-11; 2:2-20; 4:2-21; 6:9-16.

WHAT DOES IT SAY?

What news caused Nehemiah to mourn and pray? (Nehemiah 1.)

---

What did King Artaxerxes do when he noticed Nehemiah's sadness? (Nehemiah 2.)

---

Who opposed the work on the wall, and how did Nehemiah deal with them? (Nehemiah 4.)

---

What did the people do when the work was finished? (Nehemiah 8 and 9.)

---

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

What kind of relationship must Nehemiah have had with King Artaxerxes, for the king to have supported his mission?

---

---

What does Nehemiah's prayer tell you about him?

---

What wisdom did Nehemiah show in the way he organized the work on the wall?

---

Nehemiah Rebuilds the Wall BETWEEN THE LINES

Take some time to read the story of Nehemiah rebuilding the walls in
Nehemiah 1:3-11; 2:2-20; 4:2-21; 6:9-16.

WHAT DOES IT SAY?

What news caused Nehemiah to mourn and pray? (Nehemiah 1.)

What did King Artaxerxes do when he noticed Nehemiah's sadness? (Nehemiah 2.)

Who opposed the work on the wall, and how did Nehemiah deal with them? (Nehemiah 4.)

What did the people do when the work was finished? (Nehemiah 8 and 9.)

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

What kind of relationship must Nehemiah have had with King Artaxerxes, for the king to have supported his mission?

What does Nehemiah's prayer tell you about him?

What wisdom did Nehemiah show in the way he organized the work on the wall?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO ME?

What can we learn from God's treatment of His people?

- A) He reports.
- B) He remembers.
- C) He restores.
- D) He revives.

What can we learn from the life of Nehemiah?

- A) God will use our lives.
- B) God will bring us home.
- C) God will answer our prayers.
- D) God will use our abilities.

What can we learn from the rebuilding of Jerusalem?

- A) We all have a place in building God's kingdom.
- B) We all have a home in heaven.
- C) We all have a piece of the wall.
- D) We all have a skill that is important.

What can we learn from the opposition Nehemiah faced?

- A) We all face opposition.
- B) Kingdom work is too big for us.
- C) God gives us weapons to withstand opposition.
- D) If we are watchful, we can persevere.

At this point in Israel's history, God has restored the temple and the holy city of Jerusalem, yet the king is missing from the scene. Who is that king who will come one day? (Jeremiah 23:5-6.)

How has God restored your life, when it was in ruins?

Nehemiah was a great leader. God gave him a special love for His people. God used Nehemiah's talent as a leader to rebuild the city. What abilities and passions has God given you that He will use for His kingdom?