Review: Nehemiah was sent to rebuild the city wall around Jerusalem.

God used Esther to save His people in Susa, a city in Persia. Point out Sushan or Susa (modern Shush, Iran). Reveal Bible Story Scripture Reference: Esther 2:20; 4:12-16; 5:1-4; 7:3-6. Find and Highlight Key Verse Esther 4:14 First. Pray.

Esther was raised by her cousin, Mordecai. They were Jews living in exile in Persia. King Xerxes of Persia chose Esther for his new queen. He did not know Esther was a Jew. Read Esther 2:20.

The king ordered everyone to kneel to his officer, Haman. Mordecai refused—he would only bow to God. Haman took revenge; planning to have the Jews in the kingdom killed. Mordecai asked Queen Esther to talk to the king, but the king's law stated if a person came uninvited to speak to the king, he or she would be put to death unless he extended his golden scepter. Read Esther 4:12-16; 5:1-4.

At the banquet, Esther invited the king and Haman to a second banquet where Queen Esther told King Xerxes about Haman's evil plan. Read Esther 7:3-6. He punished Haman with death and passed a law so God's people could defend themselves. Because of Queen Esther's courage, she was able to help save God's people!

THE WAY RISKING FOR WHAT IS RIGHT

Mordecai suggested God may have chosen Esther to be queen so she could help save her people. How might that have given Esther courage? Do you have a friend or family member who encourages you to do what is right? Esther risked her life by going to the king. When have you risked something to do what was right?

What did Esther tell Mordecai to do before she went to the king? (To gather the Jews to fast for three days.) What does it mean to fast? (To not eat or drink.) What do you think they prayed about? Next time you need courage, be sure to gather others to pray for you.

THE SPEAKING SCEPTER

Bravery means doing what is right even when you are afraid. Let's pass the Speaking Scepter to anyone who wants to share a time when God made you brave to speak the truth. Perhaps you bravely told an adult about someone being hurt or teased, or you know of a time when you will need to be brave. If you'd like to speak, raise your hand, and touch the scepter before you speak. Afterward, pray for the situations mentioned.

CHRIST CONNECTION:

Over 400 years after Mordecai encouraged Esther to bravely go speak to the king, Paul encouraged the church in Corinth to bravely stand firm in their faith in Jesus. Reveal 1 Corinthians 16:13-14. Read.

Paul says to do everything in love. We should not bravely speak the truth if our reasons involve hatred, revenge (getting others in trouble), or feeling important. We should bravely speak the truth because we love God and all the people He has made and because we want to do what is right in His eyes.

THE GOLDEN BOWL: Pray for individuals. Pray the Lord's Prayer.
