

HAT DOES IT MEAN TO ME?

Which of the following was Isaiah foretelling in Isaiah 40:3?

- A) The birth of the Messiah.
- B) The death of Jesus.
- C) The message of John the Baptist.
- D) A new heaven and earth.

Which of the following was Isaiah foretelling in Isaiah 52:13?

- A) The birth of the Messiah.
- B) The death of Jesus.
- C) The message of John the Baptist.
- D) A new heaven and earth.

Which of the following was Isaiah foretelling in Isaiah 61:1-3?

- A) The birth of the Messiah.
- B) The message of Jesus.
- C) The message of John the Baptist.
- D) A new heaven and earth.

Which of the following was Isaiah foretelling in heaven, Isaiah 65:19-20?

- A) The birth of the Messiah.
- B) The death of Jesus.
- C) The message of John the Baptist.
- D) A new heaven and earth.

Which of the following was Isaiah foretelling in heaven, Isaiah 65:25?

- A) The birth of the Messiah.
- B) The death of Jesus.
- C) The message of John the Baptist.
- D) A new heaven and earth.

God sent the prophets of old to give hope to His people. How has Jesus given hope to you?

How does the fact that many of these prophecies have already been fulfilled give you hope for heaven?

Advent 1: Isaiah and the Prince of Peace

BETWEEN THE LINES

Take some time to read the prophecies of Isaiah in Isaiah 40:1-5; 52:13-15; 61:1-3 and 65:13-25.

HAT DOES IT SAY?

Read Isaiah 11:1-11 to answer the following questions:
Which verses tell about the coming kingdom of peace?

Which verses tell that the Messiah will know the hearts of men?

Which verses tell that the Messiah will be a different kind of Deliverer?

What single person in history fulfilled these prophecies of Isaiah?

HAT DOES IT MEAN?

If you had been living in the time of Isaiah, what would you have believed about the Coming Messiah?

What does it tell you about God, that He sent prophets to tell His people a Deliverer was coming?

Why do you think God sent prophets like Isaiah, with specific descriptions of the Promised One?

HAT DOES IT MEAN TO ME?

Which of the following was Isaiah foretelling in Isaiah 40:3?

- A) The birth of the Messiah.
- B) The death of Jesus.
- C) The message of John the Baptist.
- D) A new heaven and earth.

Which of the following was Isaiah foretelling in Isaiah 52:13?

- A) The birth of the Messiah.
- B) The death of Jesus.
- C) The message of John the Baptist.
- D) A new heaven and earth.

Which of the following was Isaiah foretelling in Isaiah 61:1-3?

- A) The birth of the Messiah.
- B) The message of Jesus.
- C) The message of John the Baptist.
- D) A new heaven and earth.

Which of the following was Isaiah foretelling in heaven, Isaiah 65:19-20?

- A) The birth of the Messiah.
- B) The death of Jesus.
- C) The message of John the Baptist.
- D) A new heaven and earth.

Which of the following was Isaiah foretelling in heaven, Isaiah 65:25?

- A) The birth of the Messiah.
- B) The death of Jesus.
- C) The message of John the Baptist.
- D) A new heaven and earth.

God sent the prophets of old to give hope to His people. How has Jesus given hope to you?

How does the fact that many of these prophecies have already been fulfilled give you hope for heaven?

Advent 1: Isaiah and the Prince of Peace

BETWEEN_{THE}LINES

Take some time to read the prophecies of Isaiah in Isaiah 40:1-5; 52:13-15; 61:1-3 and 65:13-25.

HAT DOES IT SAY?

Read Isaiah 11:1-11 to answer the following questions:
Which verses tell about the coming kingdom of peace?

Which verses tell that the Messiah will know the hearts of men?

Which verses tell that the Messiah will be a different kind of Deliverer?

What single person in history fulfilled these prophecies of Isaiah?

HAT DOES IT MEAN?

If you had been living in the time of Isaiah, what would you have believed about the Coming Messiah?

What does it tell you about God, that He sent prophets to tell His people a Deliverer was coming?

Why do you think God sent prophets like Isaiah, with specific descriptions of the Promised One?