BIBLE MEMORY VERSE Philippians 4:8

"Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things."

When you can say this from memory, fill in the bird.

Number these boxes in the correct order.

LET'S WORSHIP!

This week we worship the God who saves us. Anyone who God saves has many reasons to praise the Lord. No matter how hard your day is, sing praises to Him—that's worship!

THIS WEEK

Begin each day this week by reading Philippians 4:8. Then praise the Lord for each one of those things you see that day, even if you are having a bad day.

Day 4

Read Acts 16:29-32.
What did Paul and Silas tell the jailer he must do to be saved?

Day 5

Read Acts 16:33-34.
What two things did the jailer do for Paul and Silas?

Day 3

Read Acts 16:26-28.
To open the prison doors and break the chains, God used
[ ] a key.
[ ] an earthquake.
[ ] an angel.

What are stocks?

Stocks are wooden blocks that hold a prisoner's ankles down so they can't stand up or escape.

PAUL AND SILAS IN PRISON Acts 16:20-34

Paul and Silas were unfairly thrown into prison. The guard locked their feet in stocks. The other prisoners heard the two men singing hymns to God. Suddenly, a big earthquake shook the prison doors open. Everybody's chains fell off. Paul told the jailer, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household." The guard believed. He and his family were baptized. He was filled with joy for they would be with God forever.
