

HAT DOES IT MEAN TO ME?

What was the real issue the Jews had against Paul?

- A) Paul was a Pharisee.
- B) Paul believed that Jesus rose from the dead.
- C) Paul was a Roman.
- D) Paul had committed blasphemy.

What surprising thing did Paul tell King Agrippa?

- A) That he had once opposed the name of Jesus.
- B) That he had heard Jesus' voice on the road to Damascus.
- C) That he too was a Pharisee.
- D) All of the above.

How would you describe Paul's speech?

- A) An accurate defense.
- B) A lecture.
- C) A personal testimony.
- D) A rambling history.

What do you think Paul hoped would result from his trial before King Agrippa?

- A) To be set free.
- B) To be understood.
- C) To be punished.
- D) To be able to tell the king about Jesus.

What do you think Paul hoped to gain by appealing to the emperor?

- A) To be set free.
- B) To be understood.
- C) To be punished.
- D) To be able to tell the emperor about Jesus.

If you were to tell someone the story of how you came to trust Jesus as your Savior, what would you say? Write it below. Or if you have not trusted Jesus as your Savior, write your feelings about that below.

Paul prayed that King Agrippa and all who heard his testimony would come to know Jesus. Who are you praying will come to know Jesus?

Paul and King Agrippa

BETWEEN_{THE}LINES

Take some time to read the story of Paul and King Agrippa in Acts 25:23-26:31.

HAT DOES IT SAY?

What problem did Felix have that kept him from being able to set Paul free?
(See Acts 25:25.)

What did Felix need from King Agrippa? (See Acts 25:26-27.)

What did Paul say King Agrippa knew, that would help him understand the real issues Paul was facing? (See Acts 26:3.)

What did the Jews know about Paul that should have helped his defense?
(See Acts 26:4-8.)

HAT DOES IT MEAN?

Picture the scene described in Acts 25:23. Write below what you think you would have heard, seen, and felt if you had been there:

Had Paul done anything worthy of death? Explain:

Why would Paul say he felt fortunate to be able to testify before the king?

- A) He was crazy.
- B) He knew God would use his words.

Paul and King Agrippa BETWEEN THE LINES

Take some time to read the story of Paul and King Agrippa in Acts 25:23-26:31.

WHAT DOES IT SAY?

What problem did Felix have that kept him from being able to set Paul free?
(See Acts 25:25.)

What did Felix need from King Agrippa? (See Acts 25:26-27.)

What did Paul say King Agrippa knew, that would help him understand the real issues Paul was facing? (See Acts 26:3.)

What did the Jews know about Paul that should have helped his defense?
(See Acts 26:4-8.)

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Picture the scene described in Acts 25:23. Write below what you think you would have heard, seen, and felt if you had been there:

Had Paul done anything worthy of death? Explain:

Why would Paul say he felt fortunate to be able to testify before the king?

A) He was crazy.

B) He knew God would use his words.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO ME?

What was the real issue the Jews had against Paul?

A) Paul was a Pharisee.

B) Paul believed that Jesus rose from the dead.

C) Paul was a Roman.

D) Paul had committed blasphemy.

What surprising thing did Paul tell King Agrippa?

A) That he had once opposed the name of Jesus.

B) That he had heard Jesus' voice on the road to Damascus.

C) That he too was a Pharisee.

D) All of the above.

How would you describe Paul's speech?

A) An accurate defense.

B) A lecture.

C) A personal testimony.

D) A rambling history.

What do you think Paul hoped would result from his trial before King Agrippa?

A) To be set free.

B) To be understood.

C) To be punished.

D) To be able to tell the king about Jesus.

What do you think Paul hoped to gain by appealing to the emperor?

A) To be set free.

B) To be understood.

C) To be punished.

D) To be able to tell the emperor about Jesus.

If you were to tell someone the story of how you came to trust Jesus as your Savior, what would you say? Write it below. Or if you have not trusted Jesus as your Savior, write your feelings about that below.

Paul prayed that King Agrippa and all who heard his testimony would come to know Jesus. Who are you praying will come to know Jesus?

KEEP THIS PAGE IN YOUR BIBLE OR IN A NOTEBOOK
WITH YOUR OTHER JOURNAL ENTRIES.