Review: God led Paul and the writer of Hebrews to write perseverance.

Today, we will read from Paul's second letter to the Corinthians.

Point to the ancient city of Corinth, Greece. In this letter, Paul explains how God uses our weaknesses to show His power. Reveal Bible Story

Scripture Reference: 2 Corinthians 4:6-7, 12:7-10. Pray. Read

2 Corinthians 12:7-10 and then 2 Corinthians 4:6-7.

THE WAY SEEING GOD'S STRENGTH

How many times did Paul ask God to take away the "thorn in his flesh"? (Three times.) This "thorn" showed Paul had a weakness. Did God answer Paul's prayer by taking his weakness away? (No.) Just like Paul, you may have something that is always a struggle for you. It might be part of your body that is weakened from sickness or injury. Maybe there is an ongoing temptation or something that makes your life difficult. If so, have you ever asked God to heal you or take this struggle away? Has God answered your prayer in the way you hoped? Sometimes, God's answer to a prayer comes right away. Sometimes, His answer comes along the way. And sometimes, God will not answer our prayers until we get to heaven, where all our weaknesses will be gone forever!

Paul was not discouraged about his unanswered prayer, because he knew that when we are weak, it is easier for others to see only God is the one with power. God is so powerful that He even uses our weaknesses in building His kingdom.

Paul said God put His light into our hearts as a treasure. This light points us and others to Jesus. It shines even brighter when others see God do mighty things through us, even though we are weak. Remove the clay pot or jar containing the decorated cross from the mailbag. God's light is like this beautiful cross and our hearts are like this breakable clay pot. If we were perfectly strong like a fancy treasure chest with a lock, others might only notice the treasure chest and the lock. But, when an old clay pot holds an amazing treasure like this cross, what do you notice most of all? In the same way, others will notice God's power even more in our weakness.

CHRIST CONNECTION:

Over 700 years before Paul compared each believer to a jar of clay with God's treasure inside, Isaiah explained who made us that way. Reveal Isaiah 64:8. Read.

A potter is an artist who molds and shapes clay into jars or pots. God has given each of you many different strengths and some weaknesses, too. No matter what your weaknesses are, the treasure in your heart is God's perfect light that points you and others to Jesus. Let others see that light and know that Jesus is the powerful one, not us!

THE GOLDEN BOWL: Pray for individuals. Pray the Lord's Prayer.
