

A scroll with a light brown, parchment-like texture and a dark brown outline. The scroll is unrolled from the top left to the bottom right. The text is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The scroll has a small circular hole at the top left and bottom left, suggesting it was once rolled up.

A Letter about Strength

Ephesians 6:10, 13, 15-18

Dear family of God in Ephesus,

Finally, let God make you strong;
depend on His mighty power.

Put on all of God's armor.

Wear on your feet what will prepare you to tell the good news of peace and pick up the shield of faith. Put on the helmet of salvation and take the sword of the Holy Spirit.

The sword is God's Word.

And at all times, pray by the power of the Spirit.

Love,
Paul