

HAT DOES IT MEAN TO ME?

(Circle all correct answers.)

If you had been Daniel, what would you have done?

- A) Quit praying.
- B) Prayed only with the doors and windows locked.
- C) Prayed silently.
- D) Worshipped the king.

In many ways, this story is a picture of Daniel's life. He had been living among vicious people who wanted to be rid of him. Do you ever feel like that? Explain below:

Whom do you turn to when you feel attacked, helpless, or surrounded?

- A) Friends.
- B) My parents.
- C) God.
- D) Other

What qualities do you see in Daniel's life that helped him take this stand?

- A) Truthfulness.
- B) Courage.
- C) Cleanliness.
- D) Faith.

When do you think Daniel developed these qualities?

- A) Every time he prayed.
- B) Every time he did the right thing.
- C) Every time he made a hard choice.
- D) Every time he took a stand.

What can you learn from Daniel's example?

Begin today to choose a life of prayer. Write your prayer below. If you don't know yet how to pray, use the prayer from Matthew 6:9-13.

Daniel and the Lion's Den

BETWEEN THE LINES

Take some time to read the story of Daniel in the lions' den in Daniel 6.

HAT DOES IT SAY?

Daniel faced a difficult choice under a new king. What did this new king intend to do as a result of Daniel's outstanding service?

What scheme did Daniel's enemies design to get Daniel in trouble?

It was common in these days for kings to set themselves up as gods. Did Daniel change his behavior as a result of King Darius' new decree?

What or whom saved Daniel, and what did King Darius do as a result?

HAT DOES IT MEAN?

Why do you think Daniel's fellow workers were jealous of him?

Compared to serving in the king's palace, do you think Daniel felt more or less threatened by lions?

How did the king feel about having to throw Daniel in the lions' den?

HAT DOES IT MEAN TO ME?

(Circle all correct answers.)

If you had been Daniel, what would you have done?

- A) Quit praying.
- B) Prayed only with the doors and windows locked.
- C) Prayed silently.
- D) Worshipped the king.

In many ways, this story is a picture of Daniel's life. He had been living among vicious people who wanted to be rid of him. Do you ever feel like that? Explain below:

Whom do you turn to when you feel attacked, helpless, or surrounded?

- A) Friends.
- B) My parents.
- C) God.
- D) Other

What qualities do you see in Daniel's life that helped him take this stand?

- A) Truthfulness.
- B) Courage.
- C) Cleanliness.
- D) Faith.

When do you think Daniel developed these qualities?

- A) Every time he prayed.
- B) Every time he did the right thing.
- C) Every time he made a hard choice.
- D) Every time he took a stand.

What can you learn from Daniel's example?

Begin today to choose a life of prayer. Write your prayer below. If you don't know yet how to pray, use the prayer from Matthew 6:9-13.

Daniel and the Lion's Den BETWEEN THE LINES

Take some time to read the story of Daniel in the lions' den in Daniel 6.

HAT DOES IT SAY?

Daniel faced a difficult choice under a new king. What did this new king intend to do as a result of Daniel's outstanding service?

What scheme did Daniel's enemies design to get Daniel in trouble?

It was common in these days for kings to set themselves up as gods. Did Daniel change his behavior as a result of King Darius' new decree?

What or whom saved Daniel, and what did King Darius do as a result?

HAT DOES IT MEAN?

Why do you think Daniel's fellow workers were jealous of him?

Compared to serving in the king's palace, do you think Daniel felt more or less threatened by lions?

How did the king feel about having to throw Daniel in the lions' den?